DEACON THOMAS MIGHELL

BORN IN ENGLAND

1606

MIGHILL ENGLISH HOME

Our English home was Rowley, in East Riding of Yorkshire, England. It is situated near the great waterway, the river Humber, an estuary of the North Sea. It is six miles from its south bank, and twenty miles from Spurn Head at the sea and has an elevation of three hundred feet above se level.

The longitude is 54° 34' north and is ten miles from the great commercial port of Hull, which lies on the north bank of the river Humber and is third port in size in England.

It is six miles south of Beverly, to which union of churches it belongs. The Parish has five hamlets, Little Weton, where most of the inhabitants live. Riplingham, Humsley, Bentley, and Rowley.

St. Peters church and the rectory are at Rowley and are in good repair at this date 1883. The Rector, Reverend C. T. Hildgard and family have been in charge of the Parish for thirty one years.

The church is situated a few rods north of the road from Kirk- Ella to Riplingham, and one half mile from the station on the Hull-Bamsley railroad, about thirty one mile southwest of York the capital.

Aella of Ida an Anglien Prince from a tribe of Germans from the southeast of Schleswig took posession of this Roman Kingdom of Bernicia consisting of the old walled city Eaforwic (York) the Roman capital until the sixth century, A. D. 547 and gathered together a number of Anglien settlers into his kingdom.

The fortress of Aella was on the Basaltic Rock of Bamborough overhanging the North Sea, and he ruled this province from Tees to the Forth. The records of this Parish do not date back of 1638, the time that Reverend Ezekiel Rogers emigrated to America with twenty families and settled on the north shore of Massachusetts and named their colony Rowley in honor of their English home.

Thomas Tenney and his wife Ann Mighell with her brother Thomas Mighill and his wife formed two families of this company. In the absence of records it is reasonable to infer that they sailed from Hull, a seaport only ten miles distant from the Parish to which they belonged.

Note-: Yorkshire forms the north shore and Lincolnshire the south shore of the Humber river.

February 7, 1649 it is granted Thomas Mighell that, that Streete which is betweene his house and mault Kilne shall remain as it now is, provided that when the fence is repaired again it shall be made three rods wide, notwithstanding the order to the contrary (Rowley R.).
